19 (d) (1.1) If the private capital investment is in excess of 20 one million dollars ($1,000,000), but not more than ten million 21 dollars ($10,000,000), the maximum allowable deduction shall be 22 equal to sixty-two and one-half per cent of the private capital 23 investment utilized in the creation of new or refurbished 24 manufacturing capacity. A taxpayer may utilize the deduction in 25 an amount not to exceed twelve and one-half per cent of the 26 private capital investment utilized in the creation of new or 27 refurbished manufacturing capacity in any one year of the 28 succeeding ten tax years immediately following the department's 29 satisfaction determination and the execution of a satisfaction 30 commitment letter, up to the maximum allowable deduction.

31 (1.2) If the private capital investment is in excess of ten 32 million dollars ($10,000,000), but not more than sixty million 33 dollars ($60,000,000), the maximum allowable deduction shall be equal to fifty per cent of the private capital investment utilized in the creation of new or refurbished manufacturing capacity. A taxpayer may utilize the deduction in an amount not to exceed ten per cent of the private capital investment utilized in the creation of new or refurbished manufacturing capacity in any one year of the succeeding ten tax years immediately following the department's satisfaction determination and the execution of a satisfaction commitment letter, up to the maximum allowable deduction.

[(1.1)] (1.3) If the private capital investment is in excess of sixty million dollars ($60,000,000), but not more than one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000), the maximum allowable deduction shall be equal to thirty-seven and one-half per cent of the private capital investment utilized in the creation of new or refurbished manufacturing capacity. A taxpayer may utilize the deduction in an amount not to exceed seven and one-half per cent of the private capital investment utilized in the creation of new or refurbished manufacturing capacity in any one year of the succeeding ten tax years immediately following the department's satisfaction determination and the execution of a satisfaction commitment letter, up to the maximum allowable deduction.

[(1.2)] (1.4) If the private capital investment exceeds one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000), the maximum allowable deduction shall be equal to twenty-five per cent of the private capital investment utilized in the creation of new or refurbished manufacturing capacity. A taxpayer may utilize the deduction in an amount not to exceed five per cent of the private capital investment utilized in the creation of new or refurbished manufacturing capacity in any one year of the succeeding ten tax years immediately following the department's satisfaction determination and the execution of a satisfaction commitment letter, up to the maximum allowable deduction.

(3) A taxpayer cannot use the deduction to reduce its tax liability by more than fifty per cent of the tax liability under this article for the taxable year. The deduction is nontransferable and any unused portion in a tax year shall expire at the end of the corresponding tax year.
