health care service denied by the internal grievance process was medically necessary and appropriate. The external grievance decision shall be subject to appeal to a court of competent discretion within sixty (60) days of receipt of notice of the equity grievance decision. There shall be a rebuttable presumption in favor of the decision of the utilization review entity conducting the external grievance.

d(v) The long-term care insurance policy issuer shall authorize any health care service or pay a claim determined to grievance was filed by the health care provider. The health care provider and the utilization review entity or long-term care article which shall not exceed twenty-five ($25) dollars.

(c) Records regarding grievances filed under this article that result in decisions adverse to policyholders or certificate holders shall be maintained by the long-term care insurance issuer for not less than three (3) years. These records shall be provided to the Department of Health, if requested for purposes of quality assurance, investigation of complaints or grievances, enforcement or other activities related to compliance with this article and other laws of this Commonwealth. Records shall be accessible only to Department of Health employes or agents with direct responsibilities under the provision of this subsection.

(d) At any time throughout the grievance process in any forum, the policyholder or certificate holder may be assisted or represented by an attorney, Department of Aging long-term care insurance ombudsman or representative, or other individual.

Section 1111.5 Prompt Processing and Payment of Claims.  (a) Upon receipt of a claim for benefits, an insurer shall determine whether it is complete. If it is not complete, within ten (10) days of receipt thereof the insurer shall postmark to the submitting person a statement of all items reasonably necessary to be submitted to make the claim complete. Upon receipt of those requested remaining items, the claim shall be complete and all clean and uncontested portions thereof shall be paid within thirty (30) days.

Each form shall be identical, except that the uniform claim form shall contain blank spaces at appropriate places in the document for approved additional information requests under clause (3).

(2) The department shall forward the uniform claim form to the Legislative Reference Bureau for publication as a notice in the Pennsylvania Bulletin. A long-term care insurance issuer shall be required to begin using the standard form as soon as practicable following the publication but in no event later than one hundred twenty (120) days following the publication.

(3) A long-term care insurance issuer may request departmental approval of additional information requests to be printed in blank spaces on the uniform claim form, and on subsequent pages if necessary, by submitting a written request to the department. Such a request shall be deemed approved by the department if not disapproved within sixty (60) days after receipt of the request. A disapproval shall be subject to the procedures under 2 Pa.C.S.
