REFERRED TO COMMITTEE ON RULES, MAY 6, 1987

A RESOLUTION

1 Proclaiming the week of June 1 through 7, 1987, as "Pennsylvania
2 Polio Week."

3 WHEREAS, There are an estimated 300,000 polio survivors in 4 the United States today, 65,000 to 70,000 of whom may experience
5 polio's late effects; and

6 WHEREAS, Knowledge about the late effects of polio is slowly
7 spreading to the health-care community and to the general
8 public; and

9 WHEREAS, Polio is still endemic and epidemic in the Third
10 World and is a threat to unimmunized travelers; and

11 WHEREAS, The International Polio Network, in an effort to 12 call attention to the problem and to provide factual
13 information, will present the Fourth International Polio and 14 Independent Living Conference in St. Louis on June 4 through 7, 15 1987; therefore be it

16 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives hereby proclaims

1 the week of June 1 through 7, 1987, as "Pennsylvania Polio Week"
2 to focus attention on the late effects of polio and to salute
3 the work of Polio Survivors Support Groups throughout the 4 Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
