REFERRED TO COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY, MARCH 7, 1995

A JOINT RESOLUTION

1 Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth
2 of Pennsylvania, further providing for rights of accused in 3 criminal prosecutions.

4 The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
5 hereby resolves as follows:

6 Section 1. The following amendment to the Constitution of 7 Pennsylvania is proposed in accordance with Article XI:

8 That section 9 of Article I be amended to read:

9 § 9. Rights of accused in criminal prosecutions.

10 In all criminal prosecutions the accused hath a right to be 11 heard by himself and his counsel, to demand the nature and cause 12 of the accusation against him, to [meet the witnesses face to 13 face] be confronted with the witnesses against him, to have 14 compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, and, in 15 prosecutions by indictment or information, a speedy public trial 16 by an impartial jury of the vicinage; he cannot be compelled to

1 give evidence against himself, nor can he be deprived of his
2 life, liberty or property, unless by the judgment of his peers
3 or the law of the land. The use of a suppressed voluntary 4 admission or voluntary confession to impeach the credibility of 5 a person may be permitted and shall not be construed as 6 compelling a person to give evidence against himself.

7 Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the General
8 Assembly may by statute provide for the manner of testimony of 9 child victims or child material witnesses in criminal 10 proceedings, including the use of videotaped depositions or 11 testimony by closed-circuit television. Nothing in this section 12 shall be construed to prohibit the use of hearsay testimony in a 13 criminal proceeding where such testimony is otherwise admissible
14 by rule, statute or common law.
