A RESOLUTION

1 Declaring the week of October 4 through 10, 1998, as "Mental 2 Illness Awareness Week" in Pennsylvania.

3 WHEREAS, Serious mental illnesses are biological brain
4 disorders that are definable and treatable; and

5 WHEREAS, More than one million people throughout this 6 Commonwealth are affected by a form of mental illness, such as 7 schizophrenia, manic depression, clinical depression, panic
8 disorder and obsessive compulsive disorder; and

9 WHEREAS, With treatment, success rates for severe and 10 persistent mental illnesses range between 60% and 80% better

1 than the treatment success rates for many physiological
2 illnesses; and

3 WHEREAS, Many individuals with mental illness are capable of 4 working, attending college and making important contributions to 5 their communities and this Commonwealth; therefore be it

6 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives declare the week
7 of October 4 through 10, 1998, as "Mental Illness Awareness
8 Week" in Pennsylvania.
