

---

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF PENNSYLVANIA

---

HOUSE RESOLUTION

No. 423 Session of 2002

---

INTRODUCED BY E. Z. TAYLOR, RUBLEY, FLICK, HENNESSEY, SCHRODER,
HERSHEY, ROSS, READSHAW, M. BAKER, BEBKO-JONES, PIPPY,
ARMSTRONG, WOJNAROSKI, GABIG, MANDERINO, B. SMITH, CREIGHTON, HARHAI, BARRAR, MAJOR, MARSICO, FRANKEL, CORRIGAN, MUNDY,
WATSON, TIGUE, LAUGHLIN, FLEAGLE, CAPPELLI, STABACK, CLYMER,
J. EVANS, DeWEESE, CALTAGIRONE, GEIST, SAYLOR, ROHRER,
TRAVAGLIO, FEESE, SCHULER, TANGRETTI, SATHER, MELIO, SHANER,
McNAUGHTON, HESS, S. MILLER, ZIMMERMAN, GRUCELA, KELLER,
YOUNGBLOOD, HARHART, JOSEPHS, ALLEN, L. I. COHEN, HORSEY,
PHILLIPS, FREEMAN, LESCOVITZ, PISTELLA AND PALLONE,
FEBRUARY 12, 2002

---

INTRODUCED AS NONCONTROVERSIAL RESOLUTION UNDER RULE 35,
FEBRUARY 12, 2002

---

A RESOLUTION

1 Recognizing and supporting the Chester County Flower Show.

2 WHEREAS, The Chester County Flower Show will be staged on 3 April 17 through 21, 2002, at QVC Studio Park in West Chester;
4 and

5 WHEREAS, The event like no other captures images of Chester
6 County, William Penn's "Greene County"; and

7 WHEREAS, Much more than a horticultural exposition, the 8 show's ambience promotes a lively and informative exchange of 9 ideas and creative energies among a diverse group ranging from 10 novice gardeners to professional horticulturists; and

11 WHEREAS, Regardless of background, all attendees celebrate 12 Chester County's yet unspoiled landscape, steeped in history and

1 tradition and full of promise for the future; and

2 WHEREAS, This renowned event is a remarkable expression of 3 civic and community pride, as well as an unsurpassed educational 4 experience for people of all ages; and

5 WHEREAS, The show benefits Family Service of Chester County;
6 and

7 WHEREAS, This outstanding show and the legion of tireless,
8 unselfish volunteers who perform countless public and behind-
9 the-scene services merit acknowledgment; therefore be it

10 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives recognize and 11 support the Chester County Flower Show and commend the many 12 volunteers who make it possible.