REFERRED TO COMMITTEE ON RULES, JULY 17, 2003

A RESOLUTION

1 Urging that appropriate funding to adequately staff her
2 legislative district office be restored to Representative
3 Rosita Youngblood forthwith.

4 WHEREAS, It is recognized that every Pennsylvanian should 5 have access to his or her State representative and the services
6 offered through legislative district offices; and

7 WHEREAS, This right to access necessitates expenditures of 8 moneys to provide office space, staff and equipment in each of 9 the Commonwealth's 203 legislative districts; and

10 WHEREAS, Both caucuses of the House of Representatives

1 receive allocations of moneys to provide district offices and 2 staff to each member; and

3 WHEREAS, Each legislator should be afforded adequate 4 resources to provide and staff a district office, regardless of 5 partisan affiliation; and

6 WHEREAS, Despite these fundamental principles of 7 representative government, Representative Rosita Youngblood has 8 been without moneys to staff her district office for more than 9 365 days, thus depriving her constituents of legislative 10 services at the local level; therefore be it

11 RESOLVED, That appropriate funding to adequately staff her
12 legislative district office be restored to Representative Rosita
13 Youngblood forthwith.
