AMENDED, MAY 12, 2004

AN ACT

1 Providing for the continuation of the Pennsylvania Senior
2 Environment Corps volunteer program administered by the
3 Department of Environmental Protection and the Department of
4 Aging; and making ~~an appropriation~~ APPROPRIATIONS. <—

5 The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
6 hereby enacts as follows:

7 Section 1. Short title.

8 This act shall be known and may be cited as the Pennsylvania
9 Senior Environment Corps Act.

10 Section 2. Definitions.

11 The following words and phrases when used in this act shall 12 have the meanings given to them in this section unless the 13 context clearly indicates otherwise:

14 "Departments." The Department of Environmental Protection
15 and the Department of Aging of the Commonwealth.

16 "Pennsylvania Senior Environment Corps." The established
17 Statewide network of county-based host organizations for older

1 Pennsylvanians who implement environmental, educational, social
2 and health programs benefiting their communities and the
3 Commonwealth, and additional host organizations in counties not
4 yet served, as appropriate.

5 Section 3. Declaration of policy.

6 The General Assembly finds and declares as follows:

7 (1) Pennsylvania has an active, talented and informed
8 population of older residents who seek out activities and
9 programs which contribute to the improvement of communities
10 and individuals.

11 (2) Since 1997 the more than 20,000 active members of 12 the Pennsylvania Senior Environment Corps have used their 13 expertise and interest in protecting the environment to
14 pursue projects related to water quality monitoring,
15 environmental education, restoration and protection of our
16 environment and homeland security.

17 (3) The Pennsylvania Senior Environment Corps program
18 has been recognized by the United Nations, Renew America and
19 other organizations as an innovative and unique program
20 involving older citizens in creative ways to improve the 21 environment and has been copied by many other states and
22 countries around the world.

23 (4) Continuation and expansion of the Pennsylvania
24 Senior Environment Corps provides older citizens with
25 effective opportunities to be involved in positive activities
26 that not only contribute to the protection and restoration of
27 Pennsylvania's environment, but provide significant benefits
28 to those involved with this program.

29 Section 4. Pennsylvania Senior Environment Corps.

30 (a) Continued support.--The departments shall continue

1 funding and support and jointly administer the Pennsylvania
2 Senior Environment Corps and its network of chapters throughout
3 this Commonwealth for the purpose of maintaining and expanding
4 opportunities for this Commonwealth's older citizens to be
5 involved in volunteer projects relating to water quality
6 monitoring, environmental education, restoration and protection
7 of the environment and homeland security.

8 (b) Program components.--The Pennsylvania Senior Environment
9 Corps program shall include components that provide support for:

10 (1) Equipment and supplies required for successful
11 programs.

12 (2) Networking and recognition opportunities.

13 (3) Training required for successful program
14 implementation.

15 (4) Coordination and documentation, including by
16 electronic means, of program activities.

17 (5) Reimbursement of the volunteers and their host
18 organizations for direct program expenses that support
19 successful recruitment and mobilization of the volunteers.

20 (6) Public education about the vitality and value of 21 this Commonwealth's older citizens.

22 Section 5. Reporting requirements.

23 (a) Annual report.--The departments shall provide to the 24 General Assembly an annual report on the Pennsylvania Senior
25 Environment Corps program which includes information on:

26 (1) the impact of the Pennsylvania Senior Environment
27 Corps on the achievement of the missions of the departments;

28 (2) the cost-effectiveness of the Pennsylvania Senior
29 Environment Corps activities;

30 (3) the staff support of the departments for the

Pennsylvania Senior Environment Corps;

(4) the State, regional and local partnerships established by the departments and the Pennsylvania Senior Environment Corps for the purpose of advancing departmental missions and the success of the Pennsylvania Senior Environment Corps; and

(5) projections for future volunteer engagement in the Pennsylvania Senior Environment Corps, its programs and the betterment of this Commonwealth's quality of life.

(b) Meeting with secretaries.--Representatives of the Pennsylvania Senior Environment Corps program shall meet twice a year with the secretaries of the departments to provide information on accomplishments and challenges of the Pennsylvania Senior Environment Corps program.

~~Section 6. Appropriation.~~

~~The sum of $350,000 is hereby appropriated, in equal parts, to the Department of Environmental Protection and the Department of Aging for the fiscal year July 1, 2004, to June 30, 2005, to support the Pennsylvania Senior Environment Corps program.~~

SECTION 6. APPROPRIATIONS.

THE FOLLOWING AMOUNTS ARE HEREBY APPROPRIATED FROM THE GENERAL FUND FOR THE FISCAL YEAR BEGINNING JULY 1, 2004, AS FOLLOWS:

(1) THE SUM OF $150,000 IS HEREBY APPROPRIATED TO THE DEPARTMENT OF ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION FOR SUPPORTING THE PENNSYLVANIA SENIOR ENVIRONMENTAL CORPS PROGRAM.
