2 entitled "An act concerning boroughs, and revising, amending
3 and consolidating the law relating to boroughs," further 4 providing for borough powers to convey land.

5 The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
6 hereby enacts as follows:

7 Section 1. Section 1201 of the act of February 1, 1966 (1965
8 P.L.1656, No.581), known as The Borough Code, amended December 9 14, 1989 (P.L.626, No.73) and May 7, 1998 (P.L.347, No.54), is 10 amended to read:

11 Section 1201. General Powers.--A borough may:

14 of the Commonwealth.

16 pleasure.

17 (4) Purchase, acquire by gift, or otherwise, hold, lease,
18 let and convey, by sale or lease, such real and personal

1 property as shall be deemed to be to the best interest of the 2 borough, subject to the following restrictions, limitations or 3 exceptions:

4 (i) No real estate owned by the borough shall be sold for a
5 consideration in excess of fifteen hundred dollars ($1500),
6 except to the highest bidder after due notice by advertisement
7 for bids or advertisement of a public auction in one newspaper
8 of general circulation in the borough. Such advertisement shall 9 be published once not less than ten days prior to the date fixed 10 for the opening of bids or public auction, and such date for 11 opening bids or public auction shall be announced in such 12 advertisement. The award of contracts shall be made only by 13 public announcement at a regular or special meeting of council 14 or at the public auction. All bids shall be accepted on the 15 condition that payment of the purchase price in full shall be 16 made within sixty days of the acceptance of bids. The borough
17 council shall have the authority to reject all bids if such bids 18 are deemed to be less than the fair market value of the real
19 property. In the case of a public auction, the borough council 20 may establish a minimum bid based on the fair market value of 21 the real property. Real estate owned by a borough may be sold at 27 personal property of an estimated fair market value of less than 28 one thousand dollars ($1,000), no borough personal property

29 shall be disposed of, by sale or otherwise, except upon approval
30 of council, by ordinance or resolution. In cases where council

1 shall approve a sale of such property, it shall estimate the 2 fair market value of the entire lot to be disposed of. If 3 council shall estimate the fair market value to be one thousand 4 dollars ($1,000) or more, the entire lot shall be advertised for 5 sale once, in at least one newspaper of general circulation in 6 the borough, not less than ten days prior to the date fixed for 7 the opening of bids or public auction, and such date of opening 8 of bids or public auction, shall be announced in such 9 advertisement, and sale of the property so advertised shall be 10 made to the best responsible bidder. Council may reject any bids 11 received if the bids are believed to be less than the fair
12 market value of the property. Council shall, by resolution, 13 adopt a procedure for the sale of surplus personal property,
14 either individual items or lots of items, of an estimated fair 15 market value of less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) and the 16 approval of council shall not be required for any individual 17 sale that shall be made in conformity to such procedure.
