REFERRED TO COMMITTEE ON COMMERCE, SEPTEMBER 14, 2006

AN ACT

1 Prohibiting noncompete provisions in certain broadcast
2 employment contracts; and prescribing a penalty.

3 The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
4 hereby enacts as follows:

5 Section 1. Short title.

6 This act shall be known and may be cited as the Broadcast
7 Industry Free Market Act.

8 Section 2. Definitions.

9 The following words and phrases when used in this act shall
10 have the meanings given to them in this section unless the 11 context clearly indicates otherwise:

12 "Broadcast employee." An employee of a broadcast industry
13 employer. The term does not include such employee whose primary
14 duties for the broadcasting industry employer involve sales or 15 management.

16 "Broadcasting industry employer." A television station,

1 television network, radio station, radio network, cable station,
2 cable network or any broadcast affiliate thereof.

3 Section 3. Prohibition.

4 (a) General rule.--Except as otherwise provided in
5 subsection (b), no broadcasting industry employer may require in 6 any employment contract with a broadcast employee that the
7 broadcast employee or prospective broadcast employee refrain
8 from obtaining employment:

9 (1) in a geographic area;

10 (2) for a specific period of time; or

11 (3) for any particular employer or in any particular
12 industry;

13 after termination of employment with the broadcasting industry
14 employer.

15 (b) Exception.--This section shall not apply to the 16 enforcement of any such requirement during the term of the 17 contract or against a broadcast employee who breaches any other
18 provision of the contract.

19 Section 4. Penalties.

20 (a) Civil liability.--A person who violates this act shall 21 be civilly liable for damages, including attorney fees and
22 costs, incurred by a broadcast employee as a result of such 23 violation.

24 (b) Criminal offense.--A person who violates this act
25 commits a misdemeanor of the first degree.

26 Section 5. Effective date.

27 This act shall take effect in 60 days.
