INTRODUCED AS NONCONTROVERSIAL RESOLUTION UNDER RULE 35,
OCTOBER 18, 2006

A RESOLUTION

1 Designating the week of October 23 through 31, 2006, as "Civil 2 Air Patrol Red Ribbon Week" in Pennsylvania.

3 WHEREAS, The Civil Air Patrol's nearly 57,000 members will 4 join military, law enforcement and school officials nationwide
5 the week of October 23 through 31, 2006, as participants in "Red 6 Ribbon Week"; and

7 WHEREAS, The annual observance, which encourages youths to 8 say no to drugs, also commemorates the supreme sacrifice made by 9 a 1986 casualty of the war on drugs -- Agent Enrique Camarena of 10 the United States Drug Enforcement Agency, who was kidnapped, 11 tortured and murdered by Mexican drug cartel members; and

1 WHEREAS, This observance is a national celebration in memory
2 of Agent Camarena and an opportunity for Civil Air Patrol
3 members to rededicate themselves to the drug demand reduction 4 mission; and

5 WHEREAS, The Civil Air Patrol has purchased more than 200,000
6 red ribbons that read "Civil Air Patrol -- United Against 7 Drugs," which are being distributed to every wing for this 8 year's celebration; and

9 WHEREAS, The wing and squadron observances will have common
10 goals: to honor Agent Camarena and to reinforce the antidrug
11 message; therefore be it

12 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives designate the 13 week of October 23 through 31, 2006, as "Civil Air Patrol Red 14 Ribbon Week" in Pennsylvania; and be it further

15 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives encourage the 16 youths of this Commonwealth to participate in this annual event.
