MARCH 21, 2007

A RESOLUTION

1 Designating May 1, 2007, as "No Place for Hate Day" in 2 Pennsylvania and commending the Anti-Defamation League for 3 its outstanding efforts to promote peace, brotherhood and 4 goodwill through its "No Place for Hate" program.

5 WHEREAS, The Anti-Defamation League (ADL) was formed by 6 concerned citizens more than 93 years ago to fight anti-Semitism
7 and all forms of bigotry and discrimination; and

8 WHEREAS, ADL members continue today to engage in anti-bias
9 programs designed for schools, workplaces, college campuses and 10 communities; and

11 WHEREAS, A major initiative of ADL has been the "No Place for 12 Hate" program in schools and communities to curb intolerance, 13 bias and bullying by promoting respect for differences; and

14 WHEREAS, "No Place for Hate" projects in communities and

1 schools in this Commonwealth have taken the form of candlelight
2 vigils, surveys in middle schools and high schools, teacher and 3 student training, panel discussions on bullying, mural projects,
4 formation of rapid response teams, marches, speeches and talent
5 shows where performers have presented original pieces based on 6 the "No Place for Hate" theme; and

7 WHEREAS, While its work is far from done, ADL has every 8 reason to be proud of its outstanding contributions to the 9 understanding and tolerance that exist today in American society 10 and especially its well-received five-year-old "No Place for 11 Hate" program; therefore be it

12 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives designate May 1, 13 2007, as "No Place for Hate Day" in Pennsylvania and commend the 14 Anti-Defamation League for its outstanding efforts to promote 15 peace, brotherhood and goodwill through its "No Place for Hate" 16 program.
