MARCH 21, 2007

A RESOLUTION

1 Honoring the accomplishments of Lieutenant General James Gavin
2 and urging the Chief of Staff of the United States Army to 3 recognize the right of Airborne soldiers to wear jump boots
4 and blouse their trousers.

5 WHEREAS, Lieutenant General James Gavin was raised in Mount 6 Carmel, Pennsylvania; and

7 WHEREAS, Lieutenant General Gavin had an illustrious military
8 career, developing the tactics and basic rules of Airborne
9 combat and receiving many awards, including the Distinguished 10 Service Cross with Oak Leaf Cluster, the Distinguished Service
11 Medal, the Silver Star Medal and the Purple Heart, as well as 12 the British Distinguished Service Order; and

13 WHEREAS, Paratroopers have always been elite soldiers, worthy 14 of a distinctive uniform and appearance; and

15 WHEREAS, The ability of members of the 82nd Airborne

1 Division, the 75th Ranger Regiment, Special Forces groups and 2 all other soldiers assigned to units on Airborne status to wear
3 jump boots and blouse their trousers while in Class A uniform or 4 its equivalent is in jeopardy; therefore be it

5 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives honor the 6 accomplishments of Lieutenant General James Gavin and urge the 7 Chief of Staff of the United States Army to recognize the right
8 of Airborne soldiers to wear jump boots and blouse their 9 trousers; and be it further

10 RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to 11 the Chief of Staff of the United States Army.
