

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF PENNSYLVANIA

SENATE BILL

No. 705 Session of 2007

INTRODUCED BY BAKER, CORMAN, PICCOLA, RAFFERTY, FOLMER, EARLL,
BRUBAKER, WAUGH AND ARMSTRONG, MARCH 29, 2007

REFERRED TO JUDICIARY, MARCH 29, 2007

AN ACT

1 Amending Title 42 (Judiciary and Judicial Procedure) of the 2 Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, providing for liability
3 rules applicable to product sellers.

4 The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
5 hereby enacts as follows:

6 Section 1. Title 42 of the Pennsylvania Consolidated
7 Statutes is amended by adding a section to read:

8 § 8320.1. Liability rules applicable to product sellers.

9 (a) General rule.--In a product liability action, a product
10 seller other than a manufacturer shall not be liable for damages
11 resulting in death, injury to person or property or economic 12 loss unless the plaintiff establishes at least one of the 13 following:

14 (1) The product which allegedly caused the harm
15 complained of by the plaintiff was sold by the product
16 seller, the product seller failed to exercise reasonable care
17 with respect to the product before placing the product in the 18 stream of commerce and the failure to exercise reasonable

1 care was a proximate cause of the harm complained of by the 2 plaintiff. For purposes of this paragraph, a product seller
3 shall not be considered to have failed to exercise reasonable
4 care with respect to the product based upon an alleged 5 failure to inspect a product where there was no reasonable 6 opportunity to inspect the product in a manner which, in the 7 exercise of reasonable care, would have revealed the aspect 8 of the product which allegedly caused the harm complained of 9 by the plaintiff.

10 (2) The product seller made an express warranty
11 applicable to the product which allegedly caused the harm
12 complained of by the plaintiff independent of an express 13 warranty made by a manufacturer as to the same product, the 14 product failed to conform to the seller's express warranty
15 and the failure of the product to conform to the seller's 16 express warranty caused the harm complained of by the 17 plaintiff.

18 (3) The product seller, before placing the product in 19 the stream of commerce, exercised significant control over
20 the design, manufacture, packaging or labeling of the product
21 related to the alleged defect in the product which caused the 22 harm complained of by the plaintiff.

23 (4) The product seller, before placing the product in 24 the stream of commerce, knew or reasonably should have known
25 of the defect in the product which caused the harm complained
26 of by the plaintiff or the product seller was in possession
27 of facts from which a reasonable person would conclude that 28 the product seller had or should have had knowledge of the 29 alleged defect in the product which caused the harm
30 complained of by the plaintiff.

1       (5) The product seller engaged in intentional wrongdoing
2       which was a proximate cause of the harm complained of by the 3       plaintiff.

4       (6) The product seller, before placing the product in 5       the stream of commerce, held itself out as the manufacturer
6       to the user of the product, in which case the product seller 7       shall be liable as though the product seller were the 8       manufacturer of the product.

9       (b) Rental and leases.--Notwithstanding any other provision 10      of law, a product seller who is engaged in the business of 11      renting or leasing a product shall be subject to liability
12      pursuant to subsection (a) but shall not be liable to a 13      plaintiff for the tortious act of another solely by reason of 14      ownership of the product.

15      (c) Certification of manufacturer identity.--

16           (1) In a product liability action against a product
17           seller, the product seller may file an affidavit certifying 18           the correct identity of the manufacturer of the product which 19           allegedly caused the injury, death or damage.

20           (2) The product seller shall exercise due diligence in 21           providing the plaintiff with the correct identity of the 22           manufacturer.

23      (d) Definitions.--As used in this section, the following
24      words and phrases shall have the meanings given to them in this 25      subsection:

26      "Manufacturer." A person who:

27           (1) Produced, created, made or constructed the product
28           or component part of the product.

29           (2) Designed or formulated the product or component part 30           of the product or engaged another person to design or

1       formulate the product or component part of the product.

2       "Product seller." A person who, in the course of a business
3 conducted for that purpose, sells, distributes, rents, leases,
4 prepares, packages, labels or otherwise is involved in placing a
5 product in the stream of commerce.

6       Section 2. This act shall apply to all actions instituted on 7 or after the effective date of this act.

8       Section 3. This act shall take effect in 60 days.
