No. 1278 Session of 2008

INTRODUCED BY GREENLEAF, COSTA, MELLOW, ERICKSON, M. WHITE,
RAFFERTY, ORIE, FONTANA, WOZNIAK AND O'PAKE,
FEBRUARY 12, 2008

REFERRED TO JUDICIARY, FEBRUARY 12, 2008

AN ACT

1 Amending Title 23 (Domestic Relations) of the Pennsylvania
2 Consolidated Statutes, further providing for child medical 3 support, annual fees, review of orders of support, effect of 4 incarceration, pass-through of support and assignment of 5 support.

6 The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
7 hereby enacts as follows:

8 Section 1. Section 4326(a), (b), (c), (d) and (l) of Title
9 23 of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes are amended to 10 read:

11 § 4326. Mandatory inclusion of child medical support.

12 (a) General rule.--In every proceeding to establish or 13 modify an order which requires the payment of child support, the 14 court shall ascertain the ability of each parent to provide 15 [health care coverage] medical support for the children of the 16 parties, and the order shall [provide health care coverage for 17 each child as appropriate.] include a requirement for medical 18 support to be provided by either or both parents, provided that 19 such medical support is accessible to the children.

1 (b) Noncustodial parent requirement.--If [health care
2 coverage] medical support is available at a reasonable cost to a
3 noncustodial parent [on an employment-related or other group
4 basis], the court shall require that the noncustodial parent 5 provide such [coverage] medical support to the children of the 6 parties. In cases where there are two noncustodial parents
7 having such [coverage] medical support available, the court
8 shall require one or both parents to provide [coverage] medical 9 support.

10 (c) Custodial parent requirement.--If [health care coverage]
11 medical support is available at a reasonable cost to a custodial 12 parent [on an employment-related or other group basis], the 13 court shall require that the custodial parent provide such 14 [coverage] medical support to the children of the parties, 15 unless adequate [health care coverage] medical support has 16 already been provided through the noncustodial parent. In cases 17 where the parents have shared custody of the child and 18 [coverage] medical support is available to both, the court shall 19 require one or both parents to provide [coverage] medical 20 support, taking into account the financial ability of the 21 parties and the extent of [coverage] medical support available
22 to each parent.

23 (d) Additional requirement.--If the court finds that [health
24 care coverage] medical support is not available to either parent
25 at a reasonable cost [on an employment-related or other group 26 basis], the court shall order either parent or both parents to 27 obtain medical support for the parties' children [health
28 insurance coverage] which is available at reasonable cost.

16 parent nor the department, if it has an assignment or other
17 interest, has requested a review, no review shall be required.]

18 (a.2) Effect of incarceration.--Incarceration, except

15 ceased to receive cash assistance from the
16 Commonwealth;

17 (II) second, treat the balance as 18 reimbursement of assistance in an amount not to 18 family.

19 (D) In the case of arrearages that accrued while 20 the family received cash assistance from the 21 Commonwealth:

25 assistance paid to the family and:

26 (a) pay an amount equal to the Federal 27 share of the reimbursed amount to the Federal 28 Government; and

27 Revenue Service Tax Refund Offset Program for a family
28 receiving cash assistance shall be retained by the 29 Commonwealth to the extent past due support has been assigned
30 to the department as a condition of receiving assistance.

1 Arrearages collected through use of the Internal Revenue
2 Service Tax Refund Offset Program for a family that formerly 3 received cash assistance shall first be applied to the 4 monthly support obligation, and the balance shall be applied
5 to arrears owed the family, including assignments of 6 arrearages that accrued before the family received assistance
7 from the Commonwealth and that were executed between October
8 1, 1997, and September 30, 2009. Any remaining arrearages
9 shall be paid to the department. The department shall pay to 10 the Federal Government the Federal share of the amounts so 11 retained. In no event shall the total of amounts paid to the 12 Federal Government and retained by the department exceed the

28 whom the recipient is receiving assistance. Such assignment
29 shall be effective only up to the amount of assistance
30 received[.] during the period that a family receives assistance.

1 The assignment shall exclude arrears that accrued prior to 2 receipt of assistance. The assignment shall take effect at the 3 time that the recipient is determined to be eligible for 4 assistance. Upon termination of assistance payments, the 5 assignment of support rights shall terminate, provided that any 6 amount of unpaid support obligations shall continue as an 7 obligation to and collectible by the department to the extent of 8 any unreimbursed assistance consistent with Federal law.
9 Immediately upon receipt of notification from the department 10 that a recipient has been determined to be eligible for 11 assistance, the clerks of the appropriate courts of the 12 Commonwealth shall transmit any and all support payments that 13 they thereafter receive on behalf of such assistance recipients 14 to the department. Such clerks shall continue transmitting such 15 support payments until notified by the department that it is no
16 longer necessary to do so. While the recipient is receiving 17 assistance, any such support payments made to or on behalf of 18 the assistance recipient shall be allocated to any amount due
19 the department as assignee of the recipient's support rights
20 consistent with Federal law. The assistance recipient shall be 21 deemed to have appointed the department as his attorney-in-fact 22 to endorse over to the department any and all drafts, checks,
