REFERRED TO COMMITTEE ON TRANSPORTATION, FEBRUARY 18, 2009

AN ACT

1 Amending Title 75 (Vehicles) of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes, further providing for the offense of careless driving.
2
3 The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:
4
5 Section 1. Section 3714 of Title 75 of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes is amended to read:
6 § 3714. Careless driving.
7 (a) General rule.--Any person who drives a vehicle in careless disregard for the safety of persons or property is guilty of careless driving, a summary offense.
8 (b) Unintentional death.--If the person who violates this section unintentionally causes the death of another person as a result of the violation, the person shall, upon conviction, be sentenced to pay a fine of $500.
9 (c) Serious bodily injury.--If the person who violates this section unintentionally causes the serious bodily injury of another person as a result of the violation, the person shall, upon conviction, be sentenced to pay a fine of $250.

(c.1) Additional penalty for distracted driver.--

(1) Any person who violates this section and at the time of the violation is distracted by the use of any electronic,
electrical, mechanical, personal grooming device, food, drink, book or printed material shall, in addition to any other penalty imposed, upon conviction, be sentenced to pay a fine of $50.

(2) No person shall be convicted under this subsection unless the person is also convicted under subsection (a) for a violation which occurred at the same time. No costs as described under 42 Pa.C.S. § 1725.1 (relating to costs) shall be imposed for a conviction under this subsection. Conviction under this subsection shall not constitute a moving violation.

(c.2) Civil actions.--

(1) In no event shall a violation or alleged violation under subsection (c.1) be:

(i) used as evidence in a trial of any civil action,
nor shall any jury in a civil action be instructed that any conduct constitutes or may be interpreted by them to constitute a violation under subsection (c.1);

(ii) considered as contributory negligence; or

(iii) admissible as evidence in the trial of any civil action.

(2) This section shall not be construed to impose any legal obligation upon or impute any civil liability whatsoever to an owner, employer, manufacturer, dealer or person engaged in the business of renting or leasing vehicles.
to the public to inform the public about the provisions of subsection (c.1).

(c.3) Criminal proceedings.--Evidence of a violation under subsection (c.1) is not admissible as evidence in a criminal proceeding except in a proceeding for a violation of subsection (c.1). No criminal proceeding for the crime of homicide by vehicle shall be brought on the basis of a violation under subsection (c.1).

(c.4) Insurance.--An insurer may not charge an insured who has been convicted under subsection (c.1) a higher premium for a policy of insurance in whole or in part by reason of that conviction.

(d) [Definition.--As used in this section, "serious bodily injury" means any] Definitions.--As used in this section, the following words and phrases shall have the meanings given to them in this subsection:

"Distracted." Having a person's attention diverted from operating a vehicle by a radio, recording and playback device, telephonic device, citizens band radio, television, computer and any other device.

"Serious bodily injury." Any bodily injury which creates a substantial risk of death or which causes serious, permanent disfigurement or protracted loss or impairment of the function of any bodily member or organ.

Section 2. This act shall take effect in 60 days.
