A RESOLUTION

1 Commemorating February 16, 2010, as "Lithuanian Independence
2 Day" in Pennsylvania.

3 WHEREAS, On February 16, 1918, Lithuania declared itself an 4 independent nation, adopting a democratic parliamentary 5 constitution and enacting broad reforms to modernize their 6 country; and

7 WHEREAS, Following a brief period of freedom, Lithuania was 8 invaded by the Soviet Union in 1940 and remained under Soviet 9 control for the next 50 years; and

10 WHEREAS, Lithuania once again became free and independent in 11 September 1991, electing a democratic government and holding its 12 first presidential election on February 14, 1993; and

13 WHEREAS, Act 17 of 1989 designated February 16 of each year

1 as "Lithuanian Independence Day" in order to publicly recognize 2 the outstanding contributions made by the Lithuanian people to 3 the heritage of America and this Commonwealth; therefore be it
4 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives commemorate
5 February 16, 2010, on the anniversary of the momentous occasion
6 of Lithuania's independence and note with respect and admiration
7 the struggle of the Lithuanian people for freedom in their 8 homeland.
