
THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF PENNSYLVANIA

HOUSE BILL

No. 389 Session of 2011

INTRODUCED BY WATSON, CLYMER, DiGIROLAMO, O'NEILL, PETRI AND
QUINN, FEBRUARY 1, 2011

REFERRED TO COMMITTEE ON TRANSPORTATION, FEBRUARY 1, 2011

AN ACT

1 Designating the Mill Creek Bridge on the new Route 202 Parkway
2 in Warrington Township, Bucks County, as the George W.
3 Niblock Bridge.

4 The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
5 hereby enacts as follows:

6 Section 1. George W. Niblock Bridge.

7 (a) Findings.--The General Assembly finds and declares as
8 follows:

9 (1) George W. Niblock is recognized as a longtime
10 proponent and tireless advocate for what will soon be 11 realized as the 8.6-mile Route 202 Parkway in Bucks and 12 Montgomery Counties.

13 (2) Niblock and a group of concerned citizens founded
14 the citizens' group "Support the Bypass for Route 202." He
15 coordinated town hall meetings, prepared and collected
16 petitions in support of the project, represented Bucks County
17 in meetings with State officials on the issue of the bypass
18 and served as liaison between State and local officials and

1 the Department of Transportation during the design of the 2 corridor.

3 (3) Niblock was born on November 19, 1931, in Spring
4 House, Pennsylvania. He graduated from The Pennsylvania State
5 University with a degree in mechanical engineering and later
6 graduated from LaSalle University with a business degree.

7 (4) Niblock was president of Niblock and Associates, a
8 small-equipment supplier to the food service industry. He is 9 now semiretired.

10 (5) Niblock remains active as a board member of the 11 Bucks County Economic Development Corporation, serving as
12 Chairman of the Transportation Committee. He also is a member
13 of the Central Bucks Chamber of Commerce.

14 (6) Niblock and his wife of 50 years, Jeanne, have 15 resided in Bucks County for 49 years. They have two 16 daughters, Amy and Meg, and have five grandchildren.

17 (b) Designation.--The Mill Creek Bridge on the new Route 202
18 Parkway in Warrington Township, Bucks County, is hereby 19 designated as the George W. Niblock Bridge.

20 (c) Signs.--The Department of Transportation shall erect and 21 maintain appropriate signs displaying the name of the bridge to 22 traffic in both directions.

23 Section 2. Effective date.

24 This act shall take effect in 60 days.
