12 Section 505.1. Disposition of Abandoned Personal
13 Property.--(a) [At the time a tenant has relinquished 14 possession of the real property, the tenant shall remove from 15 the premises all items of the tenant's personal property. For 16 the purposes of this section, a tenant shall be deemed to have

7 and the acceptance of possession of the real property by the 8 landlord, the tenant shall have ten days to contact the landlord
9 regarding the tenant's intent to remove any personal property
10 remaining on the premises. If the intent is conveyed to the 11 landlord, the personal property shall be retained by the 12 landlord at a site of the landlord's choosing for thirty days.
13 If no communication is made to the landlord within ten days, the 14 property may be disposed of at the end of the ten days at the 15 discretion of the landlord.

16 (c) If personal property remains on the premises following
17 the relinquishment of the premises by the tenant, the following
18 shall apply:

19 (1) If there is acceptance of the real property by the 20 landlord under subsection (a)(1) and the writ or order of 21 possession contained notice of the provisions under subsection
22 (b), the landlord shall not be required to provide further 23 notice to the tenant.

24 (2) If there is acceptance of the real property by the 25 landlord under subsection (a)(2) and the lease or lease addendum 26 contains notice of the provisions under subsection (b), the 27 landlord shall be required to provide written notice to the 28 tenant that personal property remains on the premises and must 29 be retrieved by the tenant. The notice under this paragraph 30 shall give the tenant ten days from the date of postmark of the

1 notice to notify the landlord that the tenant will be retrieving
2 the personal property. If the intent is conveyed to the 3 landlord, the personal property shall be retained by the
4 landlord at a site of the landlord's choosing for thirty days
5 from the date of postmark of the notice. If no communication is 6 made to the landlord within ten days, the property may be 7 disposed of at the end of the ten days at the discretion of the 8 landlord. The notice shall also include a telephone number and 13 if provided, or, if no forwarding address is provided, then to 14 the formerly leased premises; or

15 (ii) by personal delivery to the tenant.

17 of the provisions under subsection (b), the landlord, in 18 addition to complying with the requirements of paragraph (2), 19 shall send notice to any emergency contact that may have been 20 provided by the tenant in a lease agreement.

21 (4) Any notice required under this subsection shall also 22 contain information that the tenant shall be required to pay
23 costs related to the removal or storage of property retrieved by 24 the tenant after ten days under subsection (f).

25 (d) At all times between the acceptance of the premises by 26 the landlord and the expiration of the ten- or thirty-day
27 periods, the landlord shall exercise ordinary care with regard 28 to any personal property that the former tenant has left in or 29 on the real property.

30 (e) After the appropriate time period under subsection (d)

1 has expired, the landlord shall have no further responsibility
2 to the former tenant with regard to the personal property and 3 may, in the landlord's discretion, dispose of the property. If 4 the personal property is sold and proceeds exceed any 5 outstanding obligations owed to the landlord, the proceeds shall 6 be forwarded to the tenant by certified mail. If no forwarding
7 address has been provided to the landlord by the former tenant, 8 the landlord shall hold the proceeds for thirty days and, if 9 unclaimed, may retain the proceeds.

10 (f) If the landlord has issued the notice to the tenant 11 under subsection (c), the landlord may choose to store the 12 tenant's personal property at another location within reasonable 13 proximity to the leased premises. If the landlord elects to have 14 the property stored at another location, the landlord may remove 15 the property from the premises by any means reasonably
16 calculated to safeguard the property for the time period
17 required under this section. A tenant shall not be required to 18 pay any costs related to the removal or storage of the property
19 by the landlord if the former tenant retrieves the personal 20 property within ten days of the date of postmark of the notice.
21 If the former tenant retrieves the personal property after ten 22 days of the date of the postmark of notice but before thirty 23 days, the tenant shall be required to pay any reasonable and 24 actual costs related to the removal or storage of the property
25 by the landlord for that time period.] Upon the termination of a 26 lease or relinquishment of possession of real property, a tenant 27 shall remove all personal property from the leased or formerly 28 leased premises. Abandoned personal property remaining on the 29 premises may be disposed of at the discretion of the landlord,
30 subject to the provisions of this section.

16 of the tenant's rights regarding the property.

17 (c) If a tenant is deceased, the personal representative of 18 the estate shall succeed to the rights and obligations of the 19 tenant, and the landlord may advise the personal representative
20 thereof, in accordance with subsections (d) and (e), if more
21 than fourteen days have passed since the issuance of a death
22 certificate and the rent is at least fifteen days past due. If 23 the landlord has not been contacted by a personal representative 24 and has no reason to know who the personal representative is,
25 the landlord shall make reasonable attempts to find and notify a 26 personal representative, and shall mail the notice to the 27 address of the leased premises and to any emergency contact or 28 other person known to the landlord.

29 (d) Prior to removing or disposing of abandoned property,
30 the landlord must provide written notice of the tenant's rights

2 postmark date of the notice to retrieve the property or to 3 request that the property be stored for an additional period not 4 exceeding thirty days from the date of the notice. If the tenant 5 so requests, the landlord must retain or store the property for 6 up to thirty days from the date of the notice. Storage will be 7 provided at a place of the landlord's choosing and the tenant
8 shall be responsible for costs. At all times, the landlord shall 9 exercise ordinary care in handling and securing the tenant's 10 property and shall make the property reasonably available for 11 purposes of retrieval.

12 (e) Notice shall be sent by first class mail to the tenant
13 at the address of the leased premises and to any forwarding

24 landlord's choosing, and you will be responsible for costs of 25 storage."

26 (f) Under no circumstances may a landlord dispose of or 27 otherwise exercise control over personal property remaining upon 28 inhabited premises without the express permission of the tenant.
