19 ARTICLE XVII-A

20 UNIFORM CONSTRUCTION CODE, PROPERTY MAINTENANCE

21 CODE AND RESERVED POWERS

22 Section 1701-A. Definitions.

23 The following words and phrases when used in this article 24 shall have the meanings given to them in this section unless the 25 context clearly indicates otherwise:

26 "Uniform Construction Code." The Uniform Construction Code
27 adopted in accordance with the act of November 10, 1999
28 (P.L.491, No.45), known as the Pennsylvania Construction Code
29 Act.

30 Section 1702-A. Primacy of Uniform Construction Code.

1 (a) General rule.--The Uniform Construction Code shall apply
2 to the construction, alteration, repair and occupancy of all
3 buildings and structures within a township.

4 (b) Primacy.--This section and any ordinance, rule or 5 regulation adopted pursuant to this section, including any 6 ordinance exceeding the requirements of the Uniform Construction
7 Code, shall not supersede or abrogate the act of November 10,
8 1999 (P.L.491, No.45), known as the Pennsylvania Construction
9 Code Act, and shall conform to, and be construed and read in 10 pari materia with the provisions of that act.

11 Section 1703-A. Public nuisance.

12 Any building, housing or property, or part of any building,
13 housing or property erected, altered, extended, reconstructed,
14 removed or maintained, contrary to any of the provisions of any 15 ordinance passed for any of the purposes specified in this 16 article may be declared, by a court of law, a public nuisance,
17 and may be abatable as such. However, a violation of the Uniform 18 Construction Code or any ordinance that equals or exceeds the 19 Uniform Construction Code shall be subject to the provisions of 20 the Uniform Construction Code and the regulations adopted 21 thereunder by the Department of Labor and Industry relating to 22 enforcement for noncompliance.

23 Section 1704-A. Property maintenance code.

24 (a) Property maintenance code.--Notwithstanding the primacy
25 of the Uniform Construction Code, the township supervisors may 26 enact a property maintenance ordinance, and they may incorporate 27 any standard or nationally recognized property maintenance code, 28 or any variations or changes or parts of the code, published and 29 printed in book form, without incorporating the text of the code 30 in the ordinance, or the supervisors may enact any standard or

1 nationally recognized property maintenance code or any changes
2 or variations or parts, as the ordinance. In either event, the 3 proposed ordinance, or a brief summary of the proposed
4 ordinance, shall be published not more than 60 days nor less
5 than seven days before passage at least once in one newspaper
6 circulating generally in the township. The notice shall state 7 the time and place of the meeting and the particular nature of 8 the ordinance to be considered. The notice shall also state
9 where copies of the proposed ordinance and property maintenance
10 code can be examined or obtained at cost. A property maintenance 11 code adopted by reference need not be recorded in or attached to 12 the ordinance book, but shall be deemed to have been legally 13 recorded if the ordinance by which the code was adopted by 14 reference shall have been recorded, with an accompanying 15 notation stating where the full text of the code has been filed.
16 The ordinance may provide for reasonable property fines and 17 penalties for violations of the ordinance. The procedure under 18 this section relating to the adoption of the ordinance may 19 likewise be utilized in amending, supplementing or repealing any 20 of the provisions of the ordinance.

21 (b) Code enforcement officers.--The township supervisors may 22 appoint code enforcement officers who shall have the right to 23 enter upon and inspect any premises, subject to constitutional
24 standards, at all reasonable hours and in a reasonable manner
25 for the administration and enforcement of the township's
26 property maintenance code. Any fees payable to code enforcement 27 officers under the ordinance shall be promptly paid by them to 28 the township treasurer for the use of the township.

29 (c) Legal actions.--In addition to the penalties provided by 30 the property maintenance ordinance, the township may institute

1 appropriate actions or proceedings at law or in equity to 2 prevent or restrain property maintenance violations.

3 (d) Construction.--The powers of a township as provided in 4 this section shall be in addition to, but not limited to, the 5 powers provided in the act of November 26, 2008 (P.L.1672,
6 No.135), known as the Abandoned and Blighted Property
7 Conservatorship Act, 53 Pa.C.S. Ch. 61 (relating to neighborhood
8 blight reclamation and revitalization) and 68 Pa.C.S. Ch.21
9 (relating to land banks).

10 Section 1705-A. Reserved powers.

11 If, as a result of legislative action or final order of court 12 for which the time for appeal has expired and no appeal has been 13 taken or from which there is no pending appeal, the Uniform
14 Construction Code or any replacement code is no longer
15 applicable in townships, the township supervisors may:

16 (1) Enact and enforce ordinances to govern and regulate 17 the construction, reconstruction, alteration, extension, 18 repair, conversion, maintenance, use or occupation, and 19 provide for the approval, inspection and enforcement of the 20 ordinance as it relates to the property. The codes may be 21 combined or separately enacted or combined with the property
22 maintenance code. The township supervisors may adopt, amend
23 or incorporate by reference any standard or nationally 24 recognized code or any variations or changes or parts of the 25 code as its ordinance in the manner provided in section 1704-
26 A. The ordinance may provide for reasonable fines and 27 penalties for violations of the ordinance.

28 (2) Require that before any construction,
29 reconstruction, alteration, extension, repair or conversion
30 of any building has begun, approval of the plans and

1 specifications shall be secured.

2 (3) The township supervisors may appoint building
3 inspectors, housing inspectors, code enforcement officers, 4 fire prevention inspectors, electrical inspectors and 5 plumbing inspectors and fix their compensation. The 6 inspectors shall have the right to enter upon, subject to 7 constitutional standards, and inspect any premises at all 8 reasonable hours and in a reasonable manner, for the 9 administration and enforcement of the township's adopted
10 codes or ordinances incorporating standard or nationally 11 recognized codes. Any fees payable to inspectors under the 12 ordinances shall be promptly paid by them to the township
13 treasurer for the use of the township.

14 (4) In addition to the penalties provided by ordinances,
15 the township may institute appropriate actions or proceedings
16 at law or in equity to prevent or restrain the unlawful 17 construction, reconstruction, alteration, extension, repair,
18 conversion, maintenance, use or occupation of property
19 located within the township, to restrain, correct or abate
20 the violation and to prevent the use or occupancy of the 21 building, housing or structure.

22 Section 4. Nothing in this act shall be construed to repeal
23 or modify any township ordinance in effect on the effective date 24 of this act or affect any proceeding or enforcement of any 25 township ordinance instituted prior to the effective date of 26 this act.

27 Section 5. This act shall take effect in 60 days.
