
THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF PENNSYLVANIA

SENATE BILL

No. 1407 Session of 2014

INTRODUCED BY BLAKE, TEPLITZ, WASHINGTON, FOLMER, FONTANA,
BOSCOLA, STACK, WILEY, FARNESE AND YUDICHAK, JUNE 9, 2014

REFERRED TO STATE GOVERNMENT, JUNE 9, 2014

A JOINT RESOLUTION

1 Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth 2 of Pennsylvania, further providing for the designation of 3 legislative and congressional districts within this 4 Commonwealth.

5 The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
6 hereby resolves as follows:

7 Section 1. The following amendment to the Constitution of 8 Pennsylvania is proposed in accordance with Article XI:

9 That section 17 of Article II be amended to read:

10 § 17. Legislative [Reapportionment] Redistricting Commission.

11 (a) In each year following the year of the Federal decennial
12 census, a Legislative [Reapportionment] Redistricting Commission 13 shall be constituted for the purpose of [reapportioning the 14 Commonwealth. The commission shall act by a majority of its 15 entire membership.] redistricting the districts of the Senate 16 and House of Representatives of the General Assembly and the 17 districts apportioned to the Commonwealth in the House of 18 Representatives of the United States Congress.

1 [(b) The commission shall consist of five members: four of 2 whom shall be the majority and minority leaders of both the 3 Senate and the House of Representatives, or deputies appointed 4 by each of them, and a chairman selected as hereinafter
5 provided. No later than 60 days following the official reporting 6 of the Federal decennial census as required by Federal law, the 7 four members shall be certified by the President pro tempore of 8 the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives to 9 the elections officer of the Commonwealth who under law shall 10 have supervision over elections.

11 The four members within 45 days after their certification 12 shall select the fifth member, who shall serve as chairman of 13 the commission, and shall immediately certify his name to such 14 elections officer. The chairman shall be a citizen of the 15 Commonwealth other than a local, State or Federal official 16 holding an office to which compensation is attached.

17 If the four members fail to select the fifth member within 18 the time prescribed, a majority of the entire membership of the 19 Supreme Court within 30 days thereafter shall appoint the 20 chairman as aforesaid and certify his appointment to such 21 elections officer.]

22 (b.1) The following shall apply to the commission:

23 (1) The commission shall consist of the following members:

24 (i) Eight legislative appointees. The majority and minority 25 leaders of the Senate and the House of Representatives shall 26 each appoint two commissioners under this subparagraph.

27 (ii) One commissioner chosen by at least six of the eight 28 commissioners appointed under subparagraph (i). The commissioner 29 chosen under this subparagraph shall serve as chairperson.

30 (2) Each commissioner shall be a citizen of this

1 Commonwealth and may not hold a local, State or Federal office
2 to which compensation is attached.

3 (3) A commissioner may not be a staff person of a local, 4 State or Federal official holding an office to which 5 compensation is attached.

6 (4) No later than 60 days following the official reporting
7 of the Federal decennial census as required by Federal law, the 8 eight members under paragraph (1)(i) shall be certified by the 9 President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House 10 of Representatives to the Secretary of the Commonwealth.

11 (5) The eight members under paragraph (1)(i) must, within 45 12 days after their certification, select the ninth member, who 13 shall serve as chairman of the commission, and shall immediately 14 certify his or her name to the Secretary of the Commonwealth.

15 (6) If at least six of the eight commissioners appointed 16 under paragraph (1)(i) fail to select the ninth member within 17 the time required under paragraph (5), a majority of the 18 justices of the Supreme Court must, within 30 days after the 19 time required under paragraph (5), appoint the chairman and 20 certify his or her appointment to the Secretary of the 21 Commonwealth.

22 Any vacancy in the commission shall be filled within 15 days 23 in the same manner in which such position was originally filled.

24 (b.2) Each meeting of the commission must be held in public 25 and must comply with any law which applies to open meetings.

26 (c) No later than 90 days after [either the commission has 27 been duly certified or the population data for the Commonwealth 28 as determined by the Federal decennial census are available, 29 whichever is later in time,] the commission has certified that 30 the population data for this Commonwealth, as determined by the

1 Federal decennial census, is available, the commission shall 2 file a preliminary [reapportionment] redistricting plan that 3 includes both the legislative and Congressional districts with 4 [such elections officer] the Secretary of the Commonwealth with 5 at least seven or more members voting in favor of the plan.

6 The commission shall have 30 days after filing the 7 preliminary plan to make corrections in the plan. During the 30-8 day period, the commission must hold at least two public 9 meetings for citizen input. These meetings shall be 10 geographically dispersed throughout this Commonwealth.

11 Any person aggrieved by the preliminary plan shall have the 12 same 30-day period to file exceptions with the commission in 13 which case the commission shall have 30 days after the date the 14 exceptions were filed to prepare and file with [such elections 15 officer] the Secretary of the Commonwealth a revised 16 [reapportionment] redistricting plan to be approved by at least 17 seven of the nine commission members. If no exceptions are filed 18 within 30 days, or if filed and acted upon, the [commissions's] 19 commission's plan shall be final and have the force of law.

20 (d) Any aggrieved person may file an appeal from the final 21 plan directly to the Supreme Court within 30 days after the 22 filing thereof. If the appellant establishes that the final plan 23 is contrary to law, the Supreme Court shall issue an order 24 remanding the plan to the commission and directing the 25 commission to [reapportion] redistrict the Commonwealth in a 26 manner not inconsistent with such order. A plan adopted after 27 remand must be approved by at least seven of the nine commission 28 members.

29 (e) When the Supreme Court has finally decided an appeal or 30 when the last day for filing an appeal has passed with no appeal

1 taken, the [reapportionment] redistricting plan shall have the 2 force of law and the districts therein provided shall be used
3 thereafter in elections to the General Assembly and Congress 4 until the next [reapportionment] redistricting as required under 5 this section 17.

6 (f) Any district which does not include the residence from 7 which a member of the Senate was elected whether or not 8 scheduled for election at the next general election shall elect 9 a Senator at such election.

10 (g) The General Assembly shall appropriate sufficient funds 11 for the compensation and expenses of members and staff appointed 12 by the commission, and other necessary expenses. The members of 13 the commission shall be entitled to such compensation for their 14 services as the General Assembly from time to time shall 15 determine, but no part thereof shall be paid until a preliminary 16 plan is filed. If a preliminary plan is filed but the commission 17 fails to file a revised or final plan within the time 18 prescribed, the commission members shall forfeit all right to 19 compensation not paid.

20 (h) If a preliminary, revised or final [reapportionment] 21 redistricting plan is not filed by the commission within the 22 time prescribed by this section, unless the time be extended by 23 the Supreme Court for cause shown, the Supreme Court shall 24 immediately proceed on its own motion to [reapportion]
25 redistrict the Commonwealth.

26 (i) Any [reapportionment] redistricting plan filed by the 27 commission, or ordered or prepared by the Supreme Court upon the 28 failure of the commission to act, shall be published by the 29 [elections officer] Secretary of the Commonwealth once in at 30 least one newspaper of general circulation in each senatorial

1 [and], representative and Congressional district. The 2 publication shall contain a map of the Commonwealth showing the 3 complete [reapportionment] redistricting of the General Assembly 4 and Congress by districts, and a map showing the 5 [reapportionment] redistricted districts in the area normally 6 served by the newspaper in which the publication is made. The 7 publication shall also state the population of the senatorial 8 [and], representative and Congressional districts having the 9 smallest and largest population and the percentage variation of 10 such districts from the average population for senatorial [and], 11 representative and Congressional districts.

12 (j) Redistricting of Congress and the General Assembly must 13 be completed by the end of the calendar year following the 14 Federal decennial census.

15 Section 2. (a) Upon the first passage by the General 16 Assembly of this proposed constitutional amendment, the 17 Secretary of the Commonwealth shall proceed immediately to 18 comply with the advertising requirements of section 1 of Article 19 XI of the Constitution of Pennsylvania and shall transmit the 20 required advertisements to two newspapers in every county in 21 which such newspapers are published in sufficient time after 22 passage of this proposed constitutional amendment.

23 (b) Upon the second passage by the General Assembly of this 24 proposed constitutional amendment, the Secretary of the 25 Commonwealth shall proceed immediately to comply with the 26 advertising requirements of section 1 of Article XI of the 27 Constitution of Pennsylvania and shall transmit the required 28 advertisements to two newspapers in every county in which such 29 newspapers are published in sufficient time after passage of 30 this proposed constitutional amendment. The Secretary of the

1 Commonwealth shall submit this proposed constitutional amendment
2 to the qualified electors of this Commonwealth at the first 3 primary, general or municipal election which meets the 4 requirements of and is in conformance with section 1 of Article 5 XI of the Constitution of Pennsylvania and which occurs at least 6 three months after the proposed constitutional amendment is 7 passed by the General Assembly.
