
THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF PENNSYLVANIA

HOUSE BILL

No. 113 Session of 2015

INTRODUCED BY D. COSTA, READSHAW, DeLUCA, O'BRIEN, FRANKEL, MILLARD, STEPHENS, SAINATO, RAVENSTAHL, KORTZ, THOMAS,
GOODMAN, DEASY, MATZIE, WATSON, KAVULICH, CARROLL, CONKLIN,
COHEN, MURT, SNYDER, A. HARRIS AND GILLEN, JANUARY 21, 2015

REFERRED TO COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY, JANUARY 21, 2015

AN ACT

1 Amending Title 18 (Crimes and Offenses) of the Pennsylvania 2 Consolidated Statutes, in riot, disorderly conduct and 3 related offenses, further providing for the offense of 4 cruelty to animals.

5 This act shall be referred to as Angel's Law.

6 The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
7 hereby enacts as follows:

8 Section 1. Section 5511(a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (e.1), (f), 9 (g), (h), (k), (m.1) and (n) of Title 18 of the Pennsylvania 10 Consolidated Statutes are amended to read:

11 § 5511. Cruelty to animals.

12 (a) Killing, maiming or poisoning domestic animals or zoo
13 animals, etc.--

14 (1) A person commits [a misdemeanor of the second 15 degree] an offense if he willfully and maliciously:

16 (i) Kills, maims or disfigures any domestic animal 17 of another person or any domestic fowl of another person.

18 (ii) Administers poison to or exposes any poisonous

1 substance with the intent to administer such poison to 2 any domestic animal of another person or domestic fowl of 3 another person.

4 (iii) Harasses, annoys, injures, attempts to injure,
5 molests or interferes with a dog guide for an individual 6 who is blind, a hearing dog for an individual who is deaf 7 or audibly impaired or a service dog for an individual 8 who is physically limited.

9 Any person convicted of violating the provisions of this 10 paragraph shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than 11 $500.

12 (1.1) (i) Except as provided in subparagraph (ii), a
13 person convicted of violating paragraph (1) commits a 14 misdemeanor of the first degree.

15 (ii) A person convicted for a second or subsequent 16 time of violating paragraph (1) (i) commits a felony of 17 the third degree.

18 (2) A person commits a felony of the third degree if he 19 willfully and maliciously:

20 (i) Kills, maims or disfigures any zoo animal in 21 captivity.

22 (ii) Administers poison to or exposes any poisonous
23 substance with the intent to administer such poison to 24 any zoo animal in captivity.

25 (2.1) (i) A person commits a misdemeanor of the first 26 degree if he willfully and maliciously:

27 (A) Kills, maims, mutilates, tortures or 28 disfigures any dog or cat, whether belonging to 29 himself or otherwise. If a person kills, maims, 30 mutilates, tortures or disfigures a dog guide for an

1 individual who is blind, a hearing dog for an 2 individual who is deaf or audibly impaired or a 3 service dog for an individual who is physically 4 limited, whether belonging to the individual or 5 otherwise, that person, in addition to any other 6 applicable penalty, shall be required to make 7 reparations for veterinary costs in treating the dog 8 and, if necessary, the cost of obtaining and training 9 a replacement dog.

10 (B) Administers poison to or exposes any 11 poisonous substance with the intent to administer 12 such poison to any dog or cat, whether belonging to 13 himself or otherwise.

14 (ii) [Any] (A) Except as otherwise provided in 15 clause (B), any person convicted of violating the 16 provisions of this paragraph shall be sentenced to 17 pay a fine of not less than $1,000 or to imprisonment
18 for not more than two years, or both. The court may 19 also order a presentence mental evaluation.

20 (B) A second or subsequent conviction under this 21 paragraph shall be a felony of the third degree.

22 [This paragraph shall apply to dogs and cats only.]

23 (iii) The killing of a dog or cat by the owner of 24 that animal is not malicious if it is accomplished in 25 accordance with the act of December 22, 1983 (P.L.303, 26 No.83), referred to as the Animal Destruction Method
27 Authorization Law.

28 (3) This subsection shall not apply to:

29 (i) the killing of any animal taken or found in the 30 act of actually destroying any domestic animal or

1 domestic fowl;

2 (ii) the killing of any animal or fowl pursuant to 3 the act of June 3, 1937 (P.L.1225, No.316), known as The 4 Game Law, or 34 Pa.C.S. §§ 2384 (relating to declaring 5 dogs public nuisances) and 2385 (relating to destruction
6 of dogs declared public nuisances), or the regulations 7 promulgated thereunder; or

8 (iii) such reasonable activity as may be undertaken 9 in connection with vermin control or pest control.

10 * * *

11 (b) Regulating certain actions concerning fowl or rabbits.-- 12 A person commits a [summary offense] misdemeanor of the third 13 degree if he sells, offers for sale, barter, or gives away baby 14 chickens, ducklings, or other fowl, under one month of age, or 15 rabbits under two months of age, as pets, toys, premiums or 16 novelties or if he colors, dyes, stains or otherwise changes the 17 natural color of baby chickens, ducklings or other fowl, or 18 rabbits or if he brings or transports the same into this 19 Commonwealth. This section shall not be construed to prohibit 20 the sale or display of such baby chickens, ducklings, or other 21 fowl, or such rabbits, in proper facilities by persons engaged 22 in the business of selling them for purposes of commercial 23 breeding and raising.

24 (c) Cruelty to animals.--

25 (1) A person commits an offense if he wantonly or 26 cruelly illtreats, overloads, beats, otherwise abuses any 27 animal, or neglects any animal as to which he has a duty of 28 care, whether belonging to himself or otherwise, or abandons
29 any animal, or deprives any animal of necessary sustenance, 30 drink, shelter or veterinary care, or access to clean and

1 sanitary shelter which will protect the animal against 2 inclement weather and preserve the animal's body heat and 3 keep it dry.

4 (2) (i) Except as provided in subparagraph (ii), a
5 person convicted of violating paragraph (1) commits a
6 [summary offense] misdemeanor of the third degree.

7 (ii) A person convicted for a second or subsequent 8 time of violating paragraph (1) commits a misdemeanor of 9 the [third] second degree if all of the following 10 occurred:

11 (A) The action or omission for which the person 12 was convicted for a subsequent time was performed on 13 a dog or cat.

14 (B) The dog or cat was seriously injured, 15 suffered severe physical distress or was placed at 16 imminent risk of serious physical harm as the result 17 of the person's action or omission.

18 (iii) Nothing in this section shall prevent a humane 19 society police officer as defined in section 102 of the 20 act of December 7, 1982 (P.L.784, No.225), known as the 21 Dog Law, from charging a person who violates this 22 subsection for the first time.

23 (3) This subsection shall not apply to activity
24 undertaken in normal agricultural operation.

25 (d) Selling or using disabled horse.--A person commits a 26 [summary offense] misdemeanor of the third degree if he offers 27 for sale or sells any horse, which by reason of debility, 28 disease or lameness, or for other cause, could not be worked or 29 used without violating the laws against cruelty to animals, or 30 leads, rides, drives or transports any such horse for any

1 purpose, except that of conveying the horse to the nearest 2 available appropriate facility for its humane keeping or 3 destruction or for medical or surgical treatment.

4 (e) Transporting animals in cruel manner.--

5 (1) A person commits a [summary offense] misdemeanor of 6 the third degree if he carries, or causes, or allows to be 7 carried in or upon any cart, or other vehicle whatsoever, any 8 animal in a cruel or inhumane manner.

9 (2) The person taking him into custody may take charge 10 of the animal and of any such vehicle and its contents, and 11 deposit the same in some safe place of custody, and any 12 necessary expenses which may be incurred for taking charge of 13 and keeping the same, and sustaining any such animal, shall 14 be a lien thereon, to be paid before the same can lawfully be 15 recovered, or the said expenses or any part thereof remaining 16 unpaid may be recovered by the person incurring the same from 17 the owner of said creature in any action therefor.

18 (3) For the purposes of this section, it shall not be 19 deemed cruel or inhumane to transport live poultry in crates 20 so long as not more than 15 pounds of live poultry are 21 allocated to each cubic foot of space in the crate.

22 (e.1) Transporting equine animals in cruel manner.--

23 (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a person
24 commits a [summary offense] misdemeanor of the third degree 25 for each equine animal if the person carries, or causes or 26 allows to be carried, any equine animal in or upon any 27 conveyance or other vehicle whatsoever with two or more 28 levels stacked on top of one another.

29 (2) A person who violates this subsection on a second or 30 subsequent occasion commits a misdemeanor of the [third]

1 second degree for each equine animal transported.

2 (f) Hours of labor of animals.--

3 (1) A person commits a [summary offense] misdemeanor of 4 the third degree if he leads, drives, rides or works or 5 causes or permits any other person to lead, drive, ride or 6 work any horse, mare, mule, ox, or any other animal, whether 7 belonging to himself or in his possession or control, for 8 more than 15 hours in any 24 hour period, or more than 90 9 hours in any one week.

10 (2) Nothing in this subsection [contained] shall be 11 construed to warrant any persons leading, driving, riding or 12 walking any animal a less period than 15 hours, when so doing 13 shall in any way violate the laws against cruelty to animals.

14 (g) Cruelty to cow to enhance appearance of udder.--A person 15 commits a [summary offense] misdemeanor of the third degree if 16 he kneads or beats or pads the udder of any cow, or willfully 17 allows it to go unmilked for a period of 24 hours or more, for 18 the purpose of enhancing the appearance or size of the udder of 19 said cow, or by a muzzle or any other device prevents its calf, 20 if less than six weeks old, from obtaining nourishment, and 21 thereby relieving the udder of said cow, for a period of 24 22 hours.

23 (h) Specific violations; prima facie evidence of 24 violation.--

25 (1) (i) A person commits a [summary offense]
26 misdemeanor of the third degree if the person crops, 27 trims or cuts off, or causes or procures to be cropped,
28 trimmed or cut off, the whole or part of the ear or ears
29 of a dog.

30 (ii) The provisions of this paragraph shall not

1 prevent a veterinarian from cropping, trimming or cutting 2 off the whole or part of the ear or ears of a dog when 3 the dog is anesthetized and shall not prevent any person 4 from causing or procuring the cropping, trimming or 5 cutting off of a dog's ear or ears by a veterinarian.

6 (iii) The possession by any person of a dog with an 7 ear or ears cropped, trimmed or cut off and with the 8 wound or incision site resulting therefrom unhealed, or 9 any such dog being found in the charge or custody of any 10 person or confined upon the premises owned by or under 11 the control of any person, shall be prima facie evidence 12 of a violation of this subsection by the person except as 13 provided for in this subsection.

14 (iv) A person who procures the cropping, trimming or 15 cutting off of the whole or part of an ear or ears of a
16 dog shall record the procedure. The record shall include 17 the name of the attending veterinarian and the date and 18 location at which the procedure was performed. The record
19 shall be kept as long as the wound or incision site is 20 unhealed and shall be transferred with the dog during 21 that period of time.

22 (2) (i) A person commits a [summary offense]
23 misdemeanor of the third degree if the person debarks a 24 dog by cutting, causing or procuring the cutting of its 25 vocal cords or by altering, causing or procuring the 26 alteration of any part of its resonance chamber.

27 (ii) The provisions of this paragraph shall not 28 prevent a veterinarian from cutting the vocal cords or 29 otherwise altering the resonance chamber of a dog when 30 the dog is anesthetized and shall not prevent a person

1 from causing or procuring a debarking procedure by a
2 veterinarian.

3 (iii) The possession by any person of a dog with the 4 vocal cords cut or the resonance chamber otherwise 5 altered and with the wound or incision site resulting 6 therefrom unhealed, or any such dog being found in the 7 charge or custody of any person or confined upon the 8 premises owned by or under the control of any person,
9 shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this 10 paragraph by the person, except as provided in this 11 paragraph.

12 (iv) A person who procures the cutting of vocal 13 cords or the alteration of the resonance chamber of a dog 14 shall record the procedure. The record shall include the 15 name of the attending veterinarian and the date and 16 location at which the procedure was performed. The record
17 shall be kept as long as the wound or incision site is 18 unhealed and shall be transferred with the dog during 19 that period of time.

20 (3) (i) A person commits a [summary offense]
21 misdemeanor of the third degree if the person docks, cuts 22 off, causes or procures the docking or cutting off of the 23 tail of a dog over five days old.

24 (ii) The provisions of this paragraph shall not 25 prevent a veterinarian from docking, cutting off or 26 cropping the whole or part of the tail of a dog when the 27 dog is at least 12 weeks of age and the procedure is 28 performed using general anesthesia and shall not prevent 29 a person from causing or procuring the cutting off or 30 docking of a tail of a dog by a veterinarian as provided

1 in this paragraph.

2 (iii) The provisions of this section shall not 3 prevent a veterinarian from surgically removing, docking, 4 cutting off or cropping the tail of a dog between five 5 days and 12 weeks of age if, in the veterinarian's 6 professional judgment, the procedure is medically 7 necessary for the health and welfare of the dog. If the 8 procedure is performed, it shall be done in accordance 9 with generally accepted standards of veterinary practice.

10 (iv) The possession by any person of a dog with a 11 tail cut off or docked and with the wound or incision 12 site resulting therefrom unhealed, or any such dog being 13 found in the charge or custody of any person or confined 14 upon the premises owned by or under the control of any 15 person, shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of 16 this paragraph by the person, except as provided in this 17 paragraph.

18 (v) A person who procures the cutting off or docking
19 of a tail of a dog shall record the procedure. The record 20 shall include the name of the attending veterinarian and 21 the date and location at which the procedure was 22 performed. The record shall be kept as long as the wound
23 or incision site is unhealed and shall be transferred 24 with the dog during that period of time.

25 (4) (i) A person commits a [summary offense]
26 misdemeanor of the third degree if the person surgically 27 births or causes or procures a surgical birth.

28 (ii) The provisions of this section shall not 29 prevent a veterinarian from surgically birthing a dog 30 when the dog is anesthetized and shall not prevent any

1 person from causing or procuring a surgical birthing by a
2 veterinarian.

3 (iii) The possession by any person of a dog with a 4 wound or incision site resulting from a surgical birth 5 unhealed, or any such dog being found in the charge or 6 custody of any person or confined upon the premises owned 7 by or under the control of any person, shall be prima 8 facie evidence of a violation of this paragraph by the 9 person, except as provided in this paragraph.

10 (iv) A person who procures the surgical birth of a
11 dog shall record the procedure. The record shall include
12 the name of the attending veterinarian and the date and 13 location at which the procedure was performed. The record
14 shall be kept as long as the wound or incision site is 15 unhealed and shall be transferred with the dog during 16 that period of time.

17 (v) This paragraph shall not apply to personnel 18 required to comply with standards to minimize pain to an 19 animal set forth in section 2143(a)(3) of the Animal 20 Welfare Act (Public Law 89-544, 7 U.S.C. § 2131 et seq.),
21 trained in accordance with section 2143(d) of the Animal
22 Welfare Act, who work in a federally registered research
23 facility required to comply with the Animal Welfare Act 24 under the guidance or oversight of a veterinarian.

25 (5) (i) A person commits a [summary offense]
26 misdemeanor of the third degree if the person cuts off or 27 causes or procures the cutting off of the dewclaw of a 28 dog over five days old.

29 (ii) The provisions of this paragraph shall not 30 prevent a veterinarian from cutting the dewclaw and shall

1 not prevent a person from causing or procuring the 2 procedure by a veterinarian.

3 (iii) The possession by any person of a dog with the 4 dewclaw cut off and with the wound or incision site
5 resulting therefrom unhealed, or any such dog being found 6 in the charge or custody of any person or confined upon 7 the premises owned by or under the control of any person,
8 shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this
9 paragraph by the person, except as provided in this 10 paragraph.

11 (iv) A person who procures the cutting off of the 12 dewclaw of a dog shall record the procedure. The record
13 shall include the name of the attending veterinarian and 14 the date and location at which the procedure was 15 performed. The record shall be kept as long as the wound
16 or incision site is unhealed and shall be transferred 17 with the dog during that period of time.

18 * * *

19 (k) Killing homing pigeons.--A person commits a [summary 20 offense] misdemeanor of the third degree if he shoots, maims or 21 kills any antwerp or homing pigeon, either while on flight or at 22 rest, or detains or entraps any such pigeon which carries the 23 name of its owner.

24 * * *

25 (m.1) Fine for [summary offense] misdemeanor of the third
26 degree.--In addition to any other penalty provided by law, a 27 person convicted of a [summary offense] misdemeanor of the third 28 degree under this section shall pay a fine of not less than $50 29 nor more than $750 or to imprisonment for not more than 90 days, 30 or both.

1 * * *

2 (n) Skinning of and selling or buying pelts of dogs and 3 cats.--A person commits a [summary offense] misdemeanor of the 4 third degree if he skins a dog or cat or offers for sale or 5 exchange or offers to buy or exchange the pelt or pelts of any 6 dog or cat.
