9 commissioners and chief clerks, further providing for vacancy
10 in the office of county commissioner.

11 The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania
12 hereby enacts as follows:

13 Section 1. Section 501 of the act of August 9, 1955
14 (P.L.323, No.130), known as The County Code, is amended to read:

15 Section 501. Election[; Vacancies].--[(a)] Three county
16 commissioners shall be elected in each county in the year one
17 thousand nine hundred and fifty-five, and every fourth year
18 thereafter. In the election of commissioners, each qualified
19 elector shall vote for no more than two persons. The three 20 persons having the highest number of votes shall be elected.

21 [(b) Any casual vacancy in the office of county
22 commissioners shall be filled, for the balance of the unexpired

1 term, by the court of common pleas of the county in which such 2 vacancy shall occur by the appointment of a registered elector
3 of the county who was a member of the same political party as 4 the commissioner whose place is to be filled at the time the 5 commissioner was elected.]

6 Section 2. The act is amended by adding a section to read:

7 Section 501.1. Vacancies.--(a) If a vacancy occurs in the 8 office of county commissioner by death, resignation, removal 9 from the county or by failure to take the required oath or to 10 give bond as provided by law or ordinance or in another manner,
11 the following shall apply:

12 (1) The two remaining commissioners shall direct the chief 13 clerk to request that the county committee of the political 14 party or political body of the vacated commissioner at the time
15 the vacated commissioner was elected submit a list of three 16 names to be chosen through a conference process or another
17 process as provided in the bylaws of the political party or 18 political body. The committee shall submit the names within 19 thirty days of the vacancy and may rank them in order of 20 preference. The names provided in accordance with this paragraph 21 shall constitute the exclusive candidates for appointment to 22 fill the vacancy by the two remaining commissioners, the vacancy
23 board and the court. As used in this paragraph, the terms
24 "political party" or "political body" shall have the meanings
25 given to them in section 801 of the act of June 3, 1937

26 (P.L.1333, No.320), known as the "Pennsylvania Election Code."

27 (2) The two remaining county commissioners shall appoint a 28 successor within forty-five days after the vacancy occurs. If 29 the two remaining county commissioners fail to make the 30 appointment within forty-five days, the appointment shall be

1 made by the vacancy board within fifteen days after the 2 expiration of the forty-five-day period. The vacancy board shall 3 consist of the two remaining county commissioners and the one
4 elector of the county, who shall be appointed by the county
5 commissioners at the board's first meeting each calendar year or 6 as soon after that is practical and who shall act as chairperson 7 of the vacancy board. If the vacancy board fails to fill the 8 position within fifteen days after the expiration of the forty-9 five-day period, the chairperson or, if there is a vacancy in 10 the position of chairperson, the remaining members of the 11 vacancy board shall petition the court of common pleas to fill
12 the vacancy.

13 (3) If two or more vacancies exist in the office of county
14 commissioner, the court of common pleas shall fill the vacancies
15 upon presentation of a petition signed by not fewer than fifteen
16 electors of the county. Upon receipt of the petition, the court 17 shall request names from the appropriate county committee as 18 provided under paragraph (1).

19 (b) If a county committee has not provided names in 20 accordance with subsection (a), or if the commissioner whose 21 office is vacant is not a member of a political party or a
22 political body, a successor qualified under subsection (c) may 23 be appointed to fill the vacancy.

24 (c) A successor appointed to fill a vacancy in accordance 25 with this section shall:

26 (1) Be at least eighteen years of age, a citizen of the 27 United States and a resident of the county.

28 (2) Have resided within the county for one year next 29 preceding the successor's appointment.

30 (3) Be a registered elector of the county and a member of

1 the same political party or political body as the commissioner
2 whose place is to be filled at the time the commissioner was 3 elected. If the commissioner vacating office was independent of 4 a political affiliation or was affiliated with a political 5 organization other than a political party or political body, the 6 successor shall be of the same affiliation if an available
7 candidate is otherwise qualified under this subsection.

8 (4) Hold the office for the balance of the unexpired term.

9 Section 3. This act shall take effect in 60 days.
