REFERRED TO COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION, SEPTEMBER 12, 2019

A RESOLUTION

1 Recognizing the week of September 8 through 14, 2019, as 2 "Historically Black Colleges and Universities Week" in 3 Pennsylvania.

4 WHEREAS, Historically, African-American individuals took 5 great risks and sacrificed much to establish a safe learning 6 environment to achieve significant advancements across the 7 United States; and

8 WHEREAS, Since the early 1800s, historically black colleges
9 and universities (HBCUs) were established to serve the 10 educational needs of African Americans; and

11 WHEREAS, HBCUs created supportive and empowering educational 12 environments for young people from diverse backgrounds; and

13 WHEREAS, Today, there are more than 100 HBCUs in the United 14 States, including public and private institutions and 15 professional schools of law and medicine; and

16 WHEREAS, At a time when many schools barred their doors to 17 African Americans, HBCUs offered the best, and often the only,

1 opportunity for a higher education; and

2 WHEREAS, HBCUs have continued to be a vital resource in the 3 nation's educational system and have made countless 4 accomplishments to the advancement of their students and the 5 nation at large; and

6 WHEREAS, For generations, spanning more than 180 years, HBCUs
7 have contributed to the growth of African-American individuals 8 in the areas of academia, technology, business, law and 9 government; and

10 WHEREAS, This Commonwealth is home to two HBCUs, Cheyney
11 University of Pennsylvania and Lincoln University; and

12 WHEREAS, Cheyney University of Pennsylvania, founded by 13 Richard Humphreys in 1837, is the oldest of the HBCUs in the 14 country; and

15 WHEREAS, Lincoln University was founded in 1854 by John 16 Miller Dickey and his wife, Sarah Emlen Cresson; and

17 WHEREAS, These institutions have a mission to uphold their 18 tradition of academic excellence as they strive to maintain 19 their commitment to provide an education for students of diverse 20 backgrounds; and

21 WHEREAS, "Historically Black Colleges and Universities Week"
22 is a source of accomplishment and great pride for the African-23 American community as well as the entire nation; therefore be it

24 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives recognize the 25 week of September 8 through 14, 2019, as "Historically Black 26 Colleges and Universities Week" in Pennsylvania.
