28 Section 302. Current officeholders.

29 (a) General rule.--The members of Congress in office on the 30 effective date of this section shall continue in the office

1 until the expiration of their respective terms.

2 (b) Vacancies.--Vacancies existing on or after the effective
3 date of this section and before the commencement of the terms of 4 the members elected at the election of 2022 shall be filled for 5 the unexpired terms from the districts established under section 6 301.

7 Section 303. Missed political subdivision.

8 In the event a political subdivision or part of a political 9 subdivision should be omitted in the description of the 10 congressional districts, the political subdivision or part of 11 the political subdivision shall be included as a part of the 12 congressional district which completely surrounds it. Should an 13 omitted political subdivision or part of a political subdivision
14 not be completely surrounded by one congressional district, it
15 shall become a part of that congressional district to which it
16 is contiguous or, if there are two or more such contiguous
17 districts, it shall become a part of that contiguous
18 congressional district that has the least population.

19 Section 304. Duty to publish notice of redistricting.

20 The secretary shall publish notice of the congressional 21 districts as established at least once in at least one newspaper
22 of general circulation in each county in which the newspapers
23 are published. The notice shall contain legal descriptions for 24 all congressional districts in the county in which the 25 publication is made. The notice shall also state the population 26 of the districts having the smallest and largest populations and 27 the percentage variation of the districts from the average
28 population for congressional districts.

29 CHAPTER 15
